The text

My name is Jane Smith and this is my story. On my father's 40th birthday, my mum, Doreen, and I gave him an unusual present. It was a dog called Lucky. She was a lovely animal, both a guard dog and a pet. She slept in the kitchen, but I sometimes let her sleep upstairs in my bedroom.

One night, it was very cold and I took her up to my room. At about 3:00 in the morning, I heard a noise and got up. It was Lucky barking. She looked afraid. I thought she wanted to go out, so I took her downstairs. When we got there Lucky ran to the kitchen and stopped in front of the door. She wanted to open the door but couldn't. I opened it but closed it very quickly : the whole kitchen was on fire and clouds of smoke started filling the house. I called my parents. They both came running down. Dad went into the kitchen. He opened all the doors and windows, but Lucky stayed until she knew we were safe.

We love our dog because she saved our lives. She is a very special dog. Now, she gets lots of presents. She always gets an ice-cream when the ice-cream man comes down our street.

Many years ago, I used to (liked – liking- like) pets. I remember spending all my time with (them – their – they). My favorite pet was a nice dog. I would stay with it in my own bedroom (when – in which – whose) I would play with it and (food – feed – feet) it with my own hands. But I was in conflict with my parents(which – whose – who) didn't like pets at all. They thought that pets would (caused – cause – is causing) some diseases and make me lose concentration. Consequently, I had to give up my dog and kept it in The Pet Friendly Accommodation. But it wasn't easy for me and I drowned into tears.
